Objective

A young man residing in Riyadh is driven by a passion for front-end web page development. While working as a barista at Sombrero Cafe, I devote my spare moments to honing my web development skills, with the ambition of fulfilling my career goals in this domain. Apart from my professional pursuits, I find pleasure in gaming.

Education

High School | Scientific 2013

Front-End Web Developer

Freelance

1. amermob.github.io/personal-portfolio

My personal website features a portfolio of my projects.

2. Sombrero coffee shop

amermob.github.io/Sombrero-Coffee-Shop/Sombrero.html

This marks my initial project for a client, focusing on introducing visitors to the café and facilitating event requests. Visitors have the option to select their preferred event type, be it coffee or ice cream.

3. Sabahat-al-eid.com

This website offers details about a demolition company specializing in buildings. It represents my second project for a client, tailored to their preferences and hosted on the domain. The client has made a payment for the services rendered.

Courses

- Self-learning in front-end web development.
